Kate Pullen These little flags are perfect for making flag toppers for your cupcakes. These small flags would also work well as small bunting to decorate your table or add scrapbook pages. You can also use this free cupcake wrapper template to create your own custom cupcake wrapper to match your cupcake flags- Make your party special by creating your own coordinating decorations. There are many free party printables that will help you create a range of party decorations including bunting, cupcake toppers and more! To use this printable cupcake flags template simply print the template on plain paper. Decorate cupcake flags with rubber stamps and add some embellishments. One option is to cut the cupcake flag shape from decorative or scrapbooking paper. Then fold the mold into two so that the points meet and sandwich a cocktail stick or craft stick at the fold of the paper. Glue the two sides together to attach the flag to the stick. The finished flags are decorated on both sides. Try writing a special message or name on one side and decorate the other side with rubber stamps. If you are planning a special occasion, it is often tempting to put your design skills to work and create your own invitations. But while it's good in theory, the pressure of time and lack of creative energy after a long day at work can often mean that it's not a good idea in practice. These and imaginative invitation templates offer a third option, so you can add a personalized to your invites without having to put in a lot of effort... 01. Confetti popper invite Start the party early with these cool confetti popper invites by Jordan Ferney If you want your party invites to go down with a bang, check out this confetti popper design from Oh Happy Day lifestyle and design blogger Jordan Ferney.
